Foreword . . .

As the nation treasures the events of its youth, so we treasure the events of our youth. May the memories of the future be made more vivid by this record of our 1967-1968 school year. May the perusal of these pages bring back happy memories and cause that spark of true Lockhart High School Spirit within you to glow warmly.

Dedication

To:

A person who has meant more to our Stiletto staff than anyone else is our sponsor, Miss Julia Coopwood. Miss Coopwood has taught in the Lockhart Schools for 36 years, and for many of these she has been Stiletto adviser.

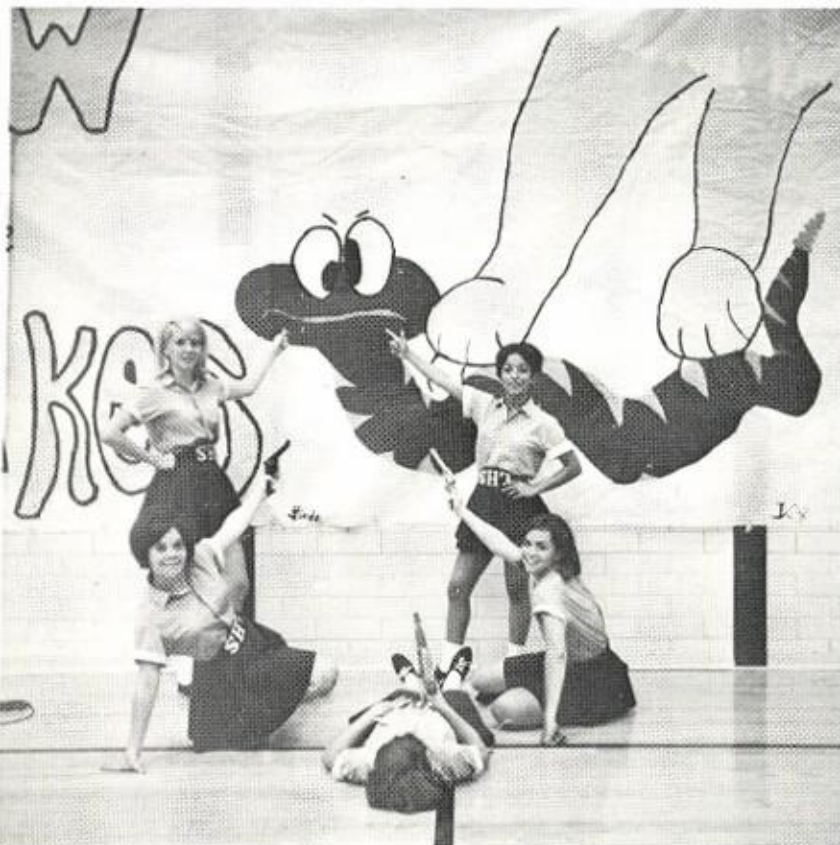

Long hours were put in by her in advising, working and listening to our joys and our woes during this time. As an understanding and wise person, Miss Coopwood will be remembered by all her students who passed through the doors of her Spanish, history, and Stiletto classes.

It is for all these qualities and many more that we proudly dedicate this 1968 Stiletto to our sponsor, Miss Julia Coopwood.

One of the jobs of Mr. Bandleman is transporting band instruments to the out of town football games.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

SPEECH

ADMINISTRATION

J. L. BUCKLEY

The smooth operation of our school is the responsibility of Mr. Buckley and the Board of Education. With an eye to the future, they have initiated new programs modernizing the curriculum to enable to-day's students to gain skills and knowledge to become better man and women prepared to succeed as leaders and citizens of tomorrow's complex and everchanging world.

Board of Education

STANDING: Jerry Barber, Dawson Perry, W. C. Mercer, Terrell Tobe McGee, SITTING: Curtis Owen, Vice-President; Roy Stephens, President; A. L. Tally, Secretary.

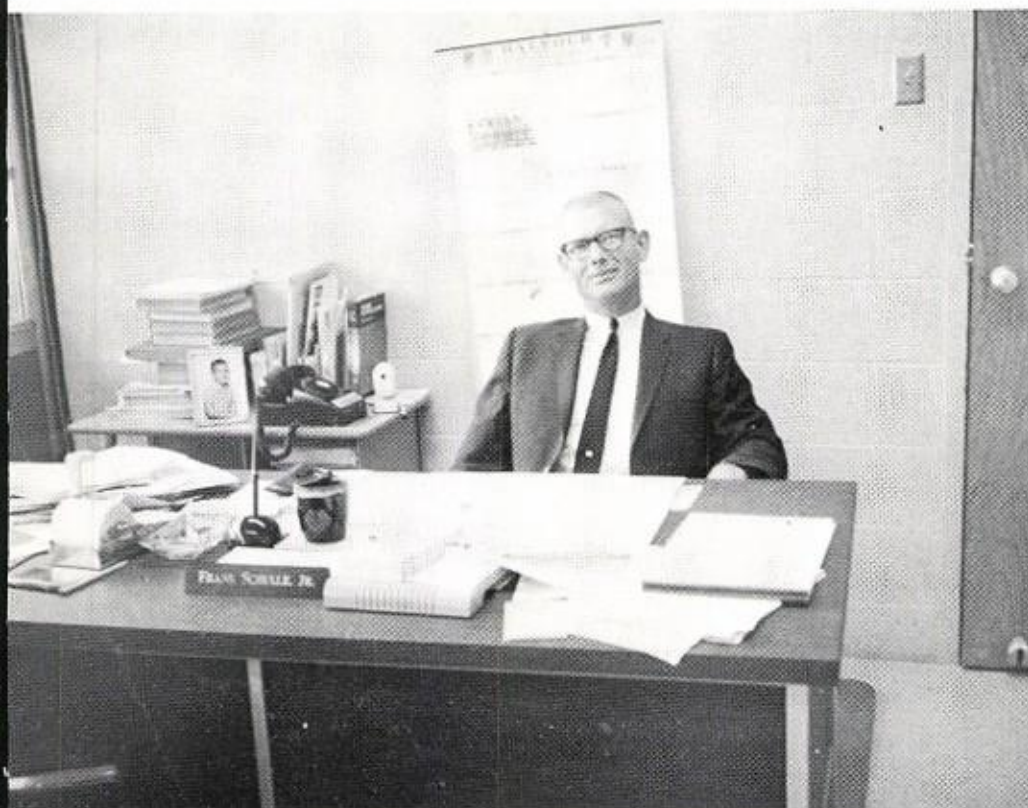

PRINCIPAL

Principal Joe Barnes ponders the answer to a question posed by a colleague.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Genial Frank Schulle, Jr. Assistant Principal, prepares for an influx of students who crave his coveted signature on their admittance slips.

SECRETARY

Even-tempered Mrs. Bob Waldman keeps her composure in the constant ebb and flow of people and their problems.

On December 16, Lockhart held its first Junior Miss Pageant at the Elementary Cafeteria. Thirteen senior girls competed for the title of Junior Miss Lockhart under the judgement of four judges. Junior Miss Lockhart is Barbara McDowell, second runner up - Iris Hughes, and third runner up - Pinky Clark.

Another form of entertainment at LHS was the Donkey Basketball Game sponsored by the Key Club. The evening was begun by several high school girls riding wooden donkeys. Key Club member Buddy Rector (right) had fun chasing his donkey instead of riding it.

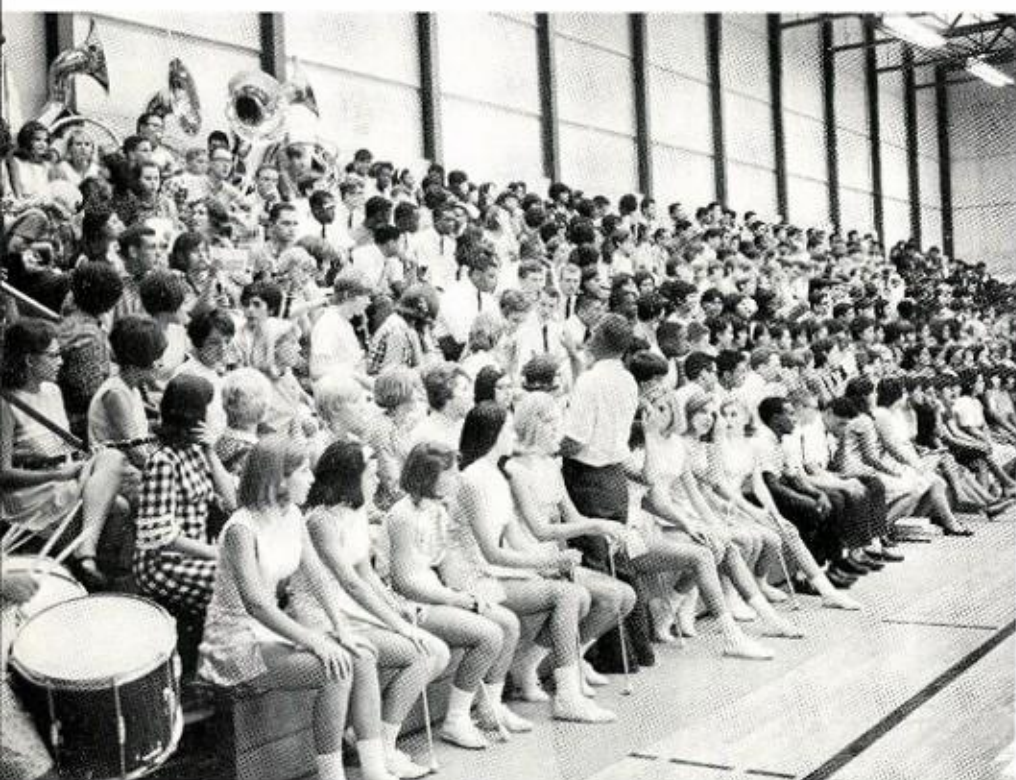

This year the National Honor Society sponsored Homecoming on November 17, which attracted many "exes" of LHS. Everyone who attended enjoyed looking at the displays of pictures and jackets in the library. Cookies and punch were served in the Homemaking Department.

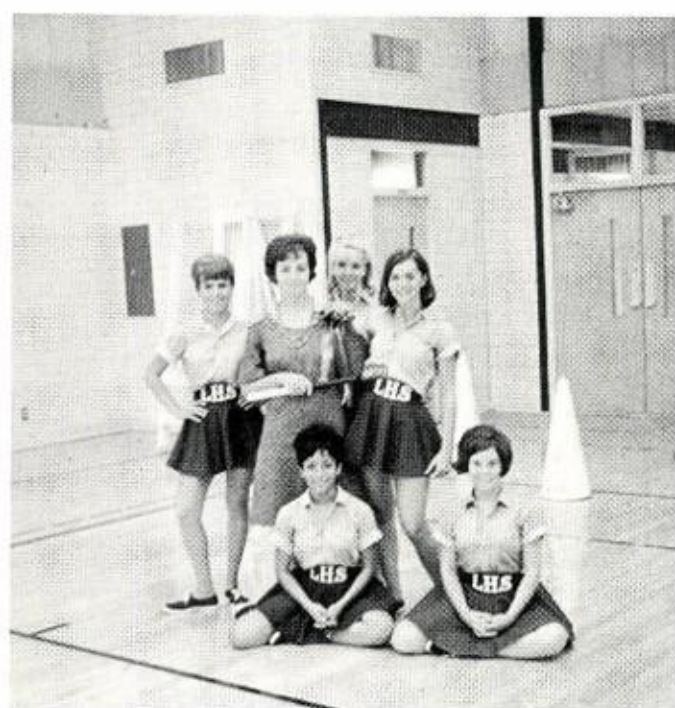

LHS is expanding. Six new classrooms are being built.

Each year the Student Council sponsors a Sweetheart Dance during the month of February. This dance is the highlight of the year.

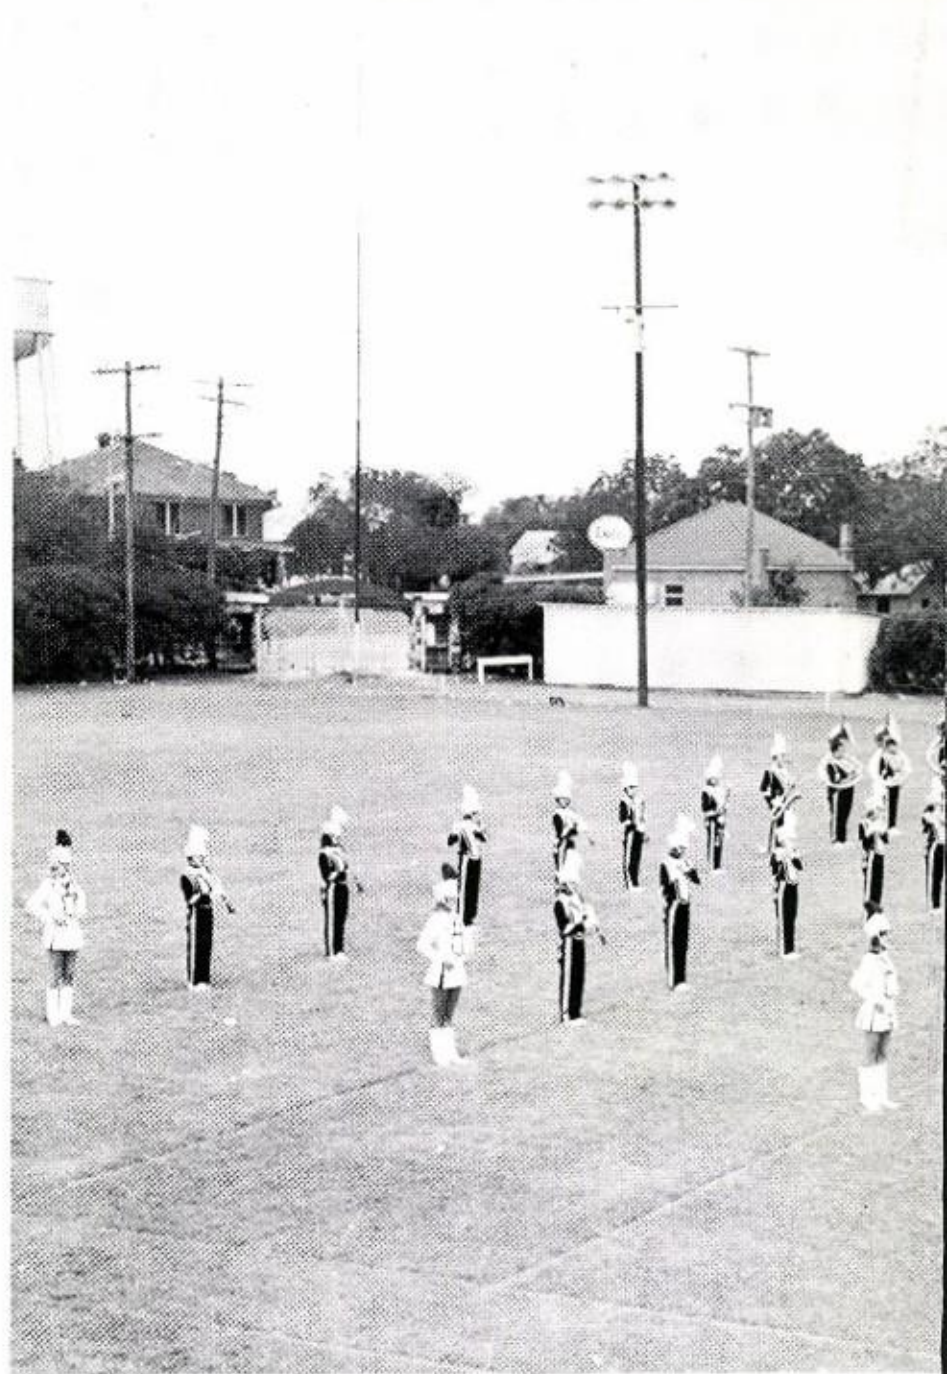

The Student Council takes an active part in the activities of our school. This year at one of the assemblies presented by the Student Council Mr. Fred L. Blundell, prominent attorney of our town, told of his trip to Europe and of the European attitude toward Americans. He urged respect for the flag of our country. He impressed upon the students that they should accept the responsibility of keeping America free. They should remember and cherish their American heritage which had been established by their forefathers.

Future Homemakers Boost Spirit at LHS

The FHA aroused LHS students at the pep-rallies by introducing the song "If You're Happy and You Know It," led by FHA song leader Gail Robuck and accompanied by pianist Sandie Schuelke. As seen in the picture, the students responded with much enthusiasm.

News of LHS

The Lions' Roar Staff is an organization of Lockhart High School students who track down the news at L.H.S. and report it.

Pictures that appear in the paper are mostly taken by the staff though some are donated.

The newspaper is published on a biweekly basis, featuring a sports column, public interest columns, and an editorial column.

Miss Patricia Johnson is the Lion's Roar sponsor, without whose help and assistance the staff could not function half so efficiently.

VICA Club

VICA, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, is an organization for youth enrolled in vocational trade. VICA brings together students with common interests and at the same time offers great leadership development programs. VICA enables the student to work with his hands and show pride in his work. Ex-members will be able to meet job requirements through the knowledge they have obtained. VICA members will grow in many ways. Those most important are: leadership, in the understanding of the functions of labor and management organizations, and ability to work together.

The world of employment is rapidly changing. Vocational office education is attempting to keep up with this development by expanding the training offered. This is evidenced by a full unit of VOE being offered this year to replace the half unit offered the two previous years. The VO-E Club, which seeks to provide opportunities for intelligent career choice in the office occupations for which the students are trained in class and on the job.

The members of the Stiletto Staff of Lockhart High School wish to express their appreciation to the businessmen who have bought advertisements in the 1967-68 yearbook. If it were not for their interest and cooperation, the Stiletto would be greatly reduced in size and quality. It is gratifying to know that the school and business interests can work harmonizingly together within the community.
